DETAILED ACTION

This Office action is in response to request for continued examination filed 7 November 2008. Claims 1-28 are cancelled. Claims 29 and 31 currently amended. Claim 33 is new. Claims 29-33 are presented for further consideration.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 7 November 2008 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 7 November 2008, with respect to claims have been fully considered and are persuasive in light of the amendments. The rejection of the claims under 35 USC §103 has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 29-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims refer to "a sending component" and "a receiving component". However, in the bi-directional embodiment as disclosed in Applicant's specification (page 24, Figure 9), there is ambiguity regarding which one of the cable head end (CHE) or the set box top (STB) is considered the sending or receiving component, respectively. As is disclosed in the specification, both the CHE and STB have sending and receiving capabilities. Examiner suggests amending the claims to explicitly recite whether the CHE or the STB are employed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 29-32 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Applicant's specification provides intrinsic evidence that the claimed computer-readable memory medium has embodiments intended to cover propagation media, electrical connections, signals or carrier waves (i.e. executable process steps are transferred from disk over computer bus to RAM; page10) which are not a manufacture within the meaning of 101. Therefore, the aforementioned claim fails to fall within a statutory category of invention.
